BARBECUED PIG AT THE COUNTRY CLUB.

A jolly party of society people made merry at the Country Club Tuesday night by barbecuing a pig and otherwise spending a very pleasant evening. Those at the feast were, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. John Denham, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McGaughey, Miss Lillie Taylor, Miss Daisy Hyer, Miss Laura Knowles, Captain Harry Davis, of the navy yard, Lieutenant Delaney, of the Gloucester, Mr. Cross, of New York, Mr. Monoud Cross, Mr. John O'Connor, Mr. Will Kessler, Mr. Knowles Hyer, Mr. C. L. Shine, Mr. Walter Pitt, Mr. Dudley Thornton and three of the officers from the German cruiser Bremen.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

More than usual interest is felt in the annual meeting of the Pensacola Library Association which will be held in Library Hall Tuesday afternoon, February 7, at 4:30 o'clock, when the annual election of officers for the ensuing year, will be held. It is hoped that every member of the Association will make it a point to be present, if possible.

DR. WILLINGHAM MONDAY NIGHT.

Dr. Willingham says the sanest things in the most way, of any man I ever heard preach, was the comment of a distinguished Floridian who recently heard the eloquent preacher and gifted orator who will preach in the First Baptist church Monday night.

Dr. Willingham is a preacher of national reputation and is secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Southern Baptist convention, located in Richmond, Va. He is not an ordinary speaker but carries his auditors by storm, and his presence in Pensacola for even one sermon is a privilege not likely to be neglected by anyone who can get out to hear him.

McDAVID'S DELIGHTFUL TACKY PARTY.

Friday evening, January the twenty-seventh, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brewton in McDavid, a "Tacky" party, true to name, was given by Misses Maggie Brewton and Beate Baggett, assisted by that able master of ceremonies, Mr. T. J. Cushman, and it is safe to say that the occasion has surpassed and eclipsed every other social function of the season.

In the opinion of your correspondent, every one present was entitled to a prize, but these rewards of excellence were bestowed only upon the truly deserving, the first prize for best ladies' costume going to Miss Carrie Brewton, while Miss Annie Harrison carried off the booby prize. Language fails us in an attempt to describe these costumes, and can only say that they were the wonder and admiration of all present.

Mr. A. C. McSwain, who was present, perhaps voiced the sentiments of the guests by his frequent exclamation: "The very latest fad!"

Mr. D. J. Baggett, that king of entertainers, whose costume was a bewildering collection of everything known to antique haberdashery, is the happy possessor of the first prize given to the gentlemen. This prize was a beautiful box of pure brown Manila writing paper.

Mr. J. M. Campbell, who was considered the best dressed man, a real beau ideal, was for his painstaking care in the arrangement of his toilet, awarded the booby prize, and upon receiving it was heard to exclaim: "The best laid schemes o' mice and men, Gang aft a-glee."

After a season of general "rubber-neck" observation, in order to give the young men an opportunity to choose partners, the merry-makers were invited to the dining hall to partake of refreshments. Here a real departure from tacky tactics was in evidence, for the table decorated with the most fragrant flowers of the season, was also heavily laden with everything intended to tempt the appetite or quench the thirst. "Cakes like mother used to bake," with wines of ancient vintage were served.

After the refreshments were "cleared away," a task that was pretty thoroughly consummated, the company passed the remainder of the evening in playing such late popular games as "Pig in the Parlor," snap, Virginia reel, etc., etc., and bade their royal entertainers "good-night" in ye early morning, carrying with them many pleasant recollections of a merry time, and a thorough knowledge of "the very latest fads."

DELIGHTFUL MUSICALS.

Mrs. Wilmer S. Hall's musicals for the Presbyterian church paragonize fund last evening filled her pretty home with an enthusiastic audience.

The program included the names of such accomplished local amateurs as Miss Barnum, Mr. Garfield, Mr. Beveridge Monroe, Miss Cora Mallory, Miss Beatrice White and Miss Charlie Belle Lane.

Mr. Porter Linthicum, of Chicago, very kindly contributed a violin solo and proved a star performer, generously responding to several encores from his enthusiastic audience.

At the close of the musical program chocolate and wafers were daintily served, Mrs. Hall, the hostess, being gracefully assisted by Mrs. C. H. Dishman and Miss Mary Chaffin.

MISS VIVIAN'S PARTY.

Miss Vivian Byrd celebrated her fifteenth birthday by entertaining her young friends Friday night. The rooms were prettily decorated, the color scheme being blue and pink, the flowers white and pink carnations, and violets and maidenhair fern.

Nice light refreshments including ice cream, cakes and fruits were served and Miss Vivian received many handsome tokens of remembrance from her guests.

Those invited were, Miss Florence Waggoner, Miss Dora Sullivan, Miss Sadie Fell, Miss Mamie Stewart, Miss Jessie Lasseter, Miss Belle Duncan, Miss Erin Robinson, Miss Ada White, Miss Virgie Shepard, Miss Regina Chaffin, Miss Velma Maura, Miss Fodie

Eggart; Messrs. Borge Fell, Alex Zeilus, Geo. Hester, Johnnie Webb, Willie and Sydney Bell, Herbert Childers, Louis Hannah, Arthur White, Sam Radcliffe, Frank Talley, Washie Wilkins, Connie Chaffin, Howard White, Jeff Long; Mr. and Mrs. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Lasseter, Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald.

Mr. Potter Linthicum, of Chicago, who is visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Dishman, is a most valued acquisition to musical circles.

Miss Josephine and Mayme Hall will leave to-night for Gulfport, Miss., to visit their brother.

Mr. Cranshaw, of Massachusetts, who is visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Anson, West DeSoto street, rendered a solo Sunday last in Christ church and will sing again this morning. He possesses a voice of rare sweetness and scope.

Miss Ethel Mobley, of Lake City, Fla., is visiting at the home of Professor and Mrs. W. D. Sears, on North Barcelona.

Miss Gypsy Morris, of Atlanta, will arrive in Pensacola to-morrow. Miss Morris has numerous friends in the city who will be pleased to meet her again.

Miss Sterritt, of Philadelphia, is expected to arrive to-night on a visit to friends in this city.

Despite the inclement weather, a large congregation, among which were many strangers, was in attendance at the regular Friday evening service at Temple Beth-El. Rev. Dr. Koch officiated in his usual impressive style, his beautiful lecture finding a responsive echo in the hearts of the worshippers.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so slow that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse menstruation, accompanied by unusual pain, from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice free of all charge if you will write her about yourself. Your letter will be seen by women only. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my monthly stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation."

"Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After trying five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my monthly around once more, and I am entirely well."—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa.

The children's party that was to have been given in Catholic Knights Hall Saturday afternoon at 3:30, was postponed on account of the bad weather until Monday afternoon at 3:30.

Miss Mary Chaffin is home from a month's visit north.

Paymaster Pyne and his charming wife will prove welcome acquisitions to local society as well as to army and navy circles. Delightfully traveled and cultured Mr. and Mrs. Pyne have recently spent two years on the island of Guam, one of the most interesting of "our" recently acquired possessions in sunset waters.

The many friends of Captain and Mrs. Eaton regret extremely that Captain Eaton has been detached from the local navy yard and that they will leave about the middle of February.

Mr. Norman M. Garrett's many friends are glad to learn that he has decided to remain as clerk to the new paymaster at the navy yard.

Paymaster Robbins, recently detached from the local navy yard, has been assigned to the New York yard.

Mrs. K. T. Goodloe, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Taylor, left Friday for her home in Indianapolis, Ind.

The euche given Thursday afternoon by the Misses Avery was a lovely and successful affair, netting a pretty sum for the Junior Guild. Mrs. L. S. Reeves won the first prize, a tomato fork, and Mrs. J. S. McGaughey won the second, a cut glass olive dish.

Mrs. L. Hilton Green's euche for the Misses Sharpe was an attractive event of Tuesday.

Miss Julia Lee's departure Wednesday to reside in South Carolina, is a source of regret to her hosts of friends in this, her home city.

Miss Hanway, of Greenville, Miss., is the guest of Miss Bella Quina, at whose wedding she will be an attendant.

Dr. Ernest Quina and Miss Alma Finch returned last evening from New Orleans, to be present at the Turner-Quina wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chaffin and children who have spent the winter with Miss Taylor, will leave about March and go to Washington, D. C., for a short stay before going abroad.

Mr. Claude Donaldson is just up from a siege of the gripe.

The Tuesday Euche gave Mrs. Joe Well a surprise Thursday evening by cropping in to remind her of her birthday. Each lady carried a luncheon which was enjoyed after several games. Mrs. Max Bear captured the first prize. Mrs. Wiseman, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., and Miss Stella Rosenau, of Louisville, Ky., cut for the guest prize, a pretty collar which Mrs. Wiseman won.

Mrs. O'Leary, wife of Paymaster O'Leary of the cruiser Columbia, accompanied by her friend Mrs. Combs, of Washington, D. C., is located in Hotel Escambia to remain until after the visit of the combined fleets.

The return of Mrs. William S. Keyser from Washington is a matter for general congratulation. Not only is she one of the most popular hostesses in society but the beautiful Keyser home is one of the most hospitable in the city.

The wedding of Mr. Turner and Miss Quina will take place Tuesday evening. The private ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on North Palafox, will be immediately followed by a large reception.

Mr. Joe Manning and little daughter, Edna, of Mobile, arrived last evening to remain for the Turner-Quina wedding.

Mrs. Henry Monk has had a serious relapse and is again confined to her bed.

Mrs. Ida Yelverton, who has been spending the winter delightfully in Columbus, Ga., was recalled home by the illness of her mother and grandmother, who are now improving.

Mrs. B. M. Levy, who has been seriously ill at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Dave Levy, will return to her home in Mobile this morning accompanied by Mr. Dave Levy and little daughter.

Mrs. Wiseman's mother, Mrs. Shulman, to whose bedside she was called, has so greatly improved that Mrs. Wiseman left Saturday noon for her home in Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Mrs. Paul Gray and family have removed to 217 North Cavallo, where her brother, Mr. Paul Dancy, will reside with her.

Mr. T. E. Bond, of Bluff Springs, who has been spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. E. Mead Wilson, left Friday for home.

Miss Lillie Ervin, daughter of Rev. E. E. Ervin, of DeFuniak Springs, is visiting Miss Minnie Wood, 20 East La Rua.

The local branch of the Council of Jewish Women will hold its regular monthly entertainment on Monday night in the parlors of the Progress Club. Besides the regular exercises a very fine literary and musical program has been arranged for the edification of the members and their guests. These entertainments are always looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.
